DEDICATION

The members of the Blossom Staff of 1952-53 proudly dedicate this yearbook to our sponsor, Mrs. James Walker. She has spent much time and effort in making this 11th Volume of the Blossom a success. Without such a capable and understanding sponsor, this publication would have been impossible. Her interest in the individual and in all phases of education has made her a favorite with everyone.

HIGH SCHOOL SONG

There's a school upon the hill
Where the mocking birds are heard
Down in Southeast Missouri in her glory;
And we claim her as our own
With a pride that never wanes,
We'll tell of her fame in song and story.

With the basket and the ball
She is noted for her fame,
And no team can break down her mighty standard;
Every student in accord
Has the spirit of the high,
And to win by her colors we are banded.

We are very proud of her;
For since 1898, she has
Stood as a peerless school of learning.
In declamatory fights
She has carried off the prize
While other schools for victory were yearning.

We will stand for Bloomfield High
And defend her worthy name,
Though we bid her farewell and go forever;
We will think of all the days
When within her honored walls,
There was born for her a love that none can sever.

Chorus:
It is victory today
For the purple and the Gold
The Colors of the Bloomfield High;
We will climb the highest hill,
And will shout with voices bold
The praises of the Bloomfield High.

FOREWORD

With the publication of this Volume 11 of The Blossom, it is our hope that each reader will pause for a moment and consider, with gratitude, the prayers, sacrifices, time, and money that were the building blocks of our education. Because of freedom-loving men and women who dedicated themselves to the up-building of a school system, we stand before the door of opportunity and see it open for us.

As we leave our school days behind, we must turn our vision to the future, strive to further the march of freedom, and provide for others the opportunities of education that were given us.

CAFETERIA COOKS

MRS. HELEN GARNER

Mrs. Helen Garner and Mrs. Willena Perry are responsible for the tasty, inexpensive hot lunches served daily to approximately 280 students. Their neatness, efficiency, and culinary ability make the noon meal pleasant for both faculty and students.

MRS. WILLENA PERRY

BUS DRIVERS

First Row: Don Stafford, Everett Young, George Long. Second Row: Ralph Hood, Melvin Williams, Jim Clark.

These six men transport approximately 375 elementary and high school students -- more than half the total school enrollment. Their total route mileage will average 175 miles.

CUSTODIANS

MR. HARMON HOWARD

Mr. Harmon Howard is completing his 15th year as custodian of the school buildings. For the past five years, Mr. Cyril George has served with him. To these men we give credit for the efficient operation of the school plant.

MR. CYRIL GEORGE

ST. PAT'S QUEEN -- Vertaree Phillips crowned by Senior Vice-President, Robert Trotter, at the Senior party. Her escort, Lawrence Cook.

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying home economics in junior and senior high schools of the United States and Territories. As an integral part of the program of home economics in the schools of America, it offers opportunity for the further development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

The big event of the year was the crowning of the Kitchen King, Donald Wiggs, at the Kitchenwarming. The Bunking Party, which was held in the high school gym, was another thrilling event of the year.

JIM SPENCER, COACH

The Bloomfield Wildcats, under their new coach, Jim Spencer, enjoyed a very interesting season in 1952-53. The team got off to a slow start. However, after the team had a chance to develop, it began to win regularly, using a ball-control style of play. Even when the Wildcats lost, it was usually by a close score.

The high point of the season was the Parma Invitational Tournament held at Parma, Missouri, Dec. 30-Jan. 3, in which the Wildcats won first place honors. Their opening game in the tournament was with Bernie, whom they defeated 34-33. In the quarter-finals the Wildcats faced Gray Ridge, taking a 49-45 victory from them in overtime. The semi-finals found the Wildcats against the Parma Pirates. Bloomfield edged out the Pirates in another close game 31-29. In the finals, the Wildcats won a bitterly contested game from Essex 37-34. Each game was exciting up to its breathless finish, and certainly no other of their victories could have been more satisfying than these to the team.

SENIOR WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1953, being of non-existent mind and unbelievable integrity, do hereby publish and declare this, our last will and testament, in which we do bequeath our hard-earned possessions and reputations to those designated in the following manner.

ARTICLE I: To the teachers

To our capable sovereign, Mr. Lawrence, to our principal, Mr. Keller, and to our battle-scarred teachers, we just leave the whole school and a sincere note of thanks for bothering with us.

ARTICLE II: To the classes

To the juniors we leave best wishes for a happy non-stop senior trip to the Dexter Park.

To the sophomores we bequeath enough votes to beat the juniors in the queen contest for us next year.

To the freshmen we will the knowledge we didn't absorb and our unacquired ability to study.

ARTICLE III: To the students

Leah Mae Almond leaves her quiet ways to Jolene Long.

Anna Mae Bernard wills her jalopy, "Elmer" to June Link.

Gonda Cagle leaves her smallness to Sonja Seabaugh.

Eddie Chapman leaves his intelligence to Ray Edwards.

Jewell Cook wills her tardy slips to someone else without an alarm clock.

Lawrence Cook leaves all of his complaints and problems to Leland Eaker.

Shirley Curneal wills her tall lankiness to Ruth Ann Lee.

Norma Eddens leaves her ability to play the supernatural part in a class play to Joyce McClain.

Shirley Elmore wills her blonde hair to Linda Harper.

Helen French leaves her ability to have two boy friends at one time to Shirley Bernard.

Walter Gillespie just wants to leave.

Betty Hamlin wills her sweet smile to Valma Duffy.

Lowell Harper leaves without a word.

Charles Hendley leaves (he hopes!).

Jerry Hester wills his trait of going with one girl for four years to Maurice Merett.

Rosalie Hester leaves her ability to catch a superintendent's son to anyone lucky enough to get it.

Doris Hill wills her strong voice to Carolyn Graves Lankford.

Frank Holder leaves his way with women to Eddie Shively.

Barbara Hopkins wills her ability to be well-liked to Sue Lemar.

Jo Ann Jarrell leaves her gum-chewing habits to Virginia Bippus.

Addison Lawrence leaves his ability to be one of the first five at all basketball games to Joe Mayo.

Shirley Lewis leaves her hard volleyball spike to Maxine Perry.

Betty Magee wills her "I like Ike" pin to John M. Lawrence.

Jim Mayo leaves his campaign plans for the '56 election with Linda Edwards.

Jeanie Parker leaves her love for redheads to anyone who can find another one.

Judy Perry leaves her claim on Essex boys to Sylvia Bess.

Vertaree Phillips leaves her modeling trip to Gideon to Reta Stevens.

Nona Proffer leaves her unselfishness to Betty Hester.

Reba Sadler leaves in search of one of last year's seniors.

Reeves Sadler leaves his manner of cutting up in class to anyone else who wants to be a teacher's pest.

Charles Mallory leaves his farming ability to Dean Shipman.

Pat Shively leaves Lee's friendship to John Houchin.

Robert Trotter wills his way of talking teachers out of a lesson to Sonny Umfleet.

Leo Tucker leaves his ability to "grow up" in a hurry to Jerry Hughes.

Georgia Ann Vance wills her musical ability to Jack Garner.

Kathleen Vandeven leaves her efficiency to Janice Briney.

Tony Varble leaves his jokes and pranks to Harold Hood.

Wayne Walker leaves his habit of "getting away with murder" in class to Jim Aslin.

Katie Ward wills her nice ways to Barbara Cossairt.

Kenneth Webber leaves his artistic temperament to Jim Garner.

Jim Wellman leaves his cowboy boots to Willard Kelly.

Don and Pat Wiggs leave happily together.

Joan Wilfong leaves the juniors regretfully.

Robert Williams leaves to wreck Missouri University.

Betsy Wilson leaves her traditional "Wilson mathematic ability" to Carolyn Shipman.

Sara Wilson wills her bookkeeping set to some struggling junior.

In witness whereof, we, the graduation class of 1953, set our hand and seal this, our last will and testament.
